

Christmas Holiday Reading Challenge

This Christmas we are setting the whole school a challenge to keep reading with our Marshmallow Christmas Reading Challenge. We would like every child to have read 10 times over the holidays, but there are lots of different marshmallow options for you to choose from. Could you read a magazine under the Christmas tree? Or snuggle up in front of the fire with a good book? Can you come up with a really unusual place to share a good story?

Each time you read, stick another marshmallow in your cup of hot chocolate. There are some blank marshmallows that you can complete too. When you have added 10 marshmallows you can then decorate your cup.

There will be prizes for the best decorated cups. There will also be prizes for the most imaginative place to read. Take a photo of you reading somewhere unusual and send it into school (if you cannot print at home, please email your photo to the school office). We will share our successes in a special assembly in January.

Good luck and happy reading!
