

Warm up

1. Add an exclamation mark or a full stop to the sentences below.

There is a tiger behind you

Tigers are a species of big cat

1 mark

2. Circle the correctly spelt words below.

The Prime Minister is an important politician / politition.

When crossing roads, always pay attension / attention.

2 marks

3. Rewrite the nouns as adjectives using the suffix 'tial' or 'cial'.

consequence

essence

race

3 marks

4. Underline the adverbials in these sentences.

In the morning, I love to eat cornflakes.

Penguins dance in a funny way.

My mum keeps a secret stash of chocolate under the sink.

3 marks

5. Change this shopping list into bullet points.

I need to buy balloons, one hat and a pineapple for the party.

For the party, I need to buy:

-
-
-

6. Rewrite this passage so that it uses the present tense.

Ameera was usually late for the train, so she hurried to the station and jumped on board. She often forgot her lunch and left it at home. Her mum sometimes drove her instead. At least she didn't have to rush on those days, unless she woke up late.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Score: