

WANTED

The Mouse has two large, soft ears which are fantastic for hearing. He has small, white eyes and a soft, wet nose. He has delicate whiskers and a mouth that is always smiling. The Mouse has fur as soft as cotton wool and he cleans it every night. His fur is light brown and his tummy is bright white. He has strong feet and he can run as fast as a cheetah. His tail is incredibly long and he is able to curl it up around him when he sleeps. All of the animals in the forest love him because he is so kind and clever. We need him found so that he can help us solve our tricky problem.
