

A colorful illustration of a rocky coastline. The sea is blue with white-capped waves crashing against the shore. The beach is a strip of light brown sand, with two small figures of people standing on it. The surrounding cliffs and rocks are grey and brown, with some green grass on the lower slopes. The word 'Seaside' is written in large, white, rounded letters with a black outline, centered over the beach and water.

Seaside

twinkl

Visiting the Seaside

Look out for these geographic features.

pebbles

pier

cliff

harbour

bay

lighthouse

beach

campsite

sand dune

funfair

Which are man made and which are natural?

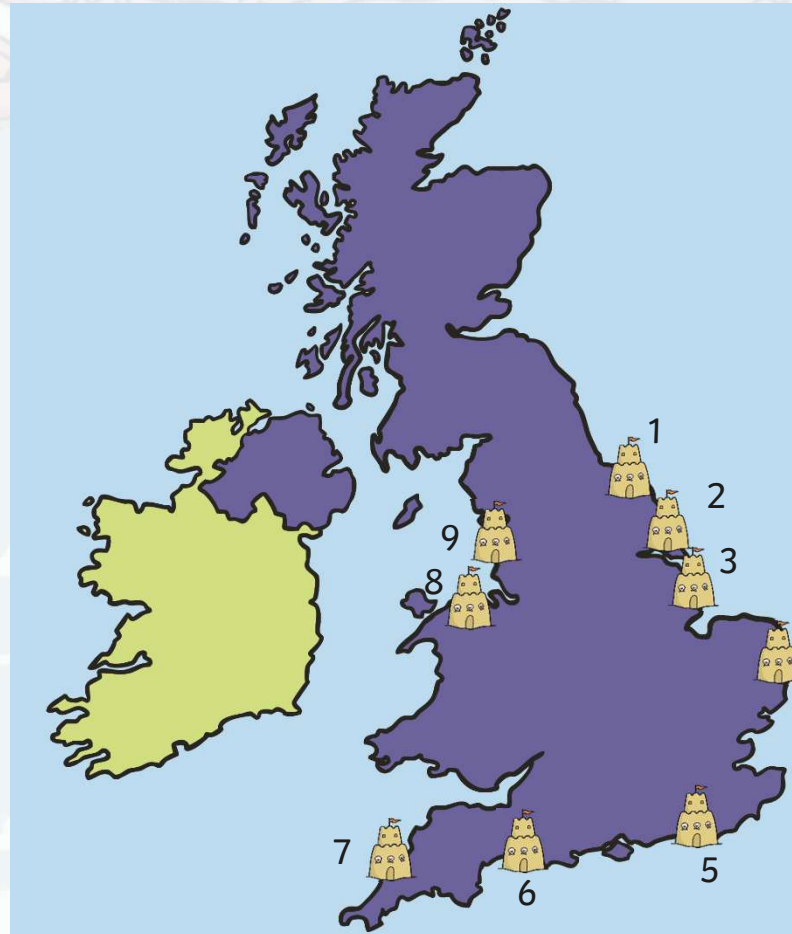

Man made – people have created them

Natural – they are not made by people

British Beaches

Click on the seagull to return to this page.

Click on a sandcastle to find out more about the beach.

1. Scarborough

2. Bridlington

3. Skegness

Photo courtesy of Phil Hearing, Stefan W. Paul Sainthorp, Alan Samuel (@flickr.com) – granted under Creative Commons licence – attribution

4. Great Yarmouth

Photos courtesy of Ian Hughes, Fulcher Photography and tico-24 (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons license - attribution

5. Hastings

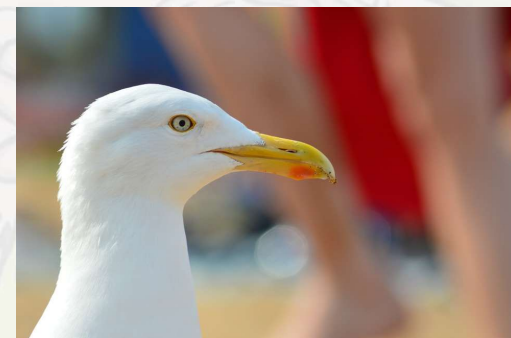

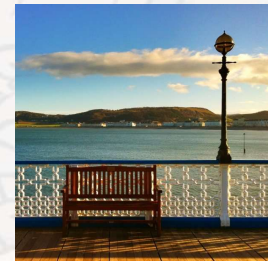

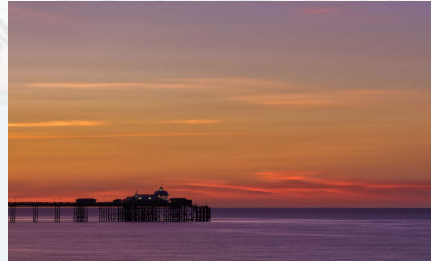

6. Weymouth

7. Newquay

8. Llandudno

9. Blackpool

Photos courtesy of Michael D Beckwith and Radar.mum (©flickr.com) - granted under creative commons license - attribution pebbles: small, smooth, round stones found by the edge of the sea.

Key Words

pier: a structure for people to walk along that is built out into the sea.

cliff: a steep rock face close to the edge of the sea.

harbour: a place by the seaside where boats can stay safely in the water.

bay: a place where the coast bends inwards and sea fills the space.

funfair: a place where there are roundabouts and other rides, stalls and shows.

lighthouse: a tower with a bright light that warns or guides ships at sea.

beach: land by the edge of the sea, usually covered with sand or small stones.

campsite: an place used for camping, filled with tents and caravans.

sand dune: hills or mounds of sand held together by plants, often near the sea.

Discussion

Have you visited any of these beaches before?
Do they remind you of a beach you have visited before?
Was there anything on the beaches that surprised you?
Do any of these beaches look like your drawing?

Out of all of the beaches you've seen today, which one is your favourite and why?
Are there any you do not like? Why?

