

1. Complete the following number sequence:

10, 9, 8, 7, ,

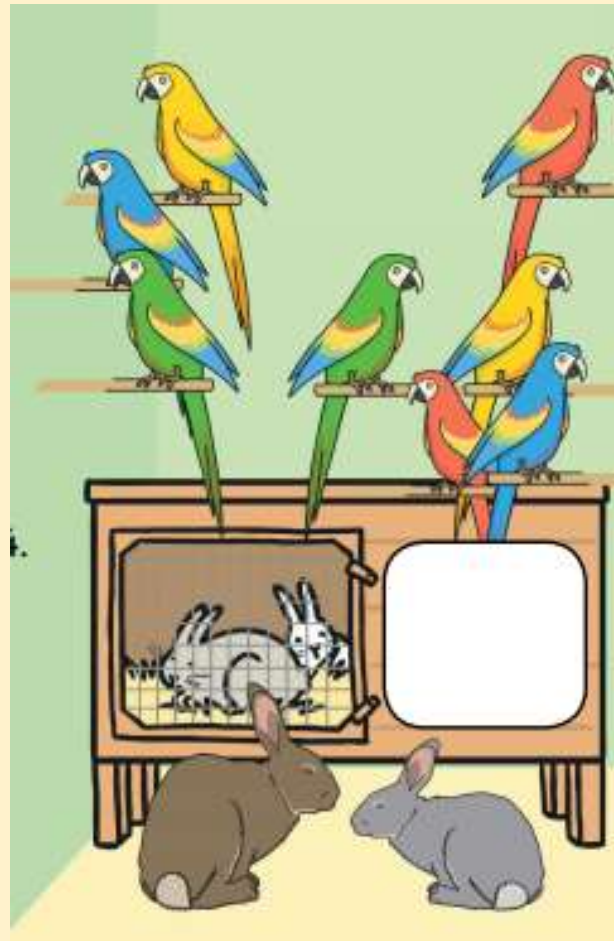

2. Write the number that is one more than 13:

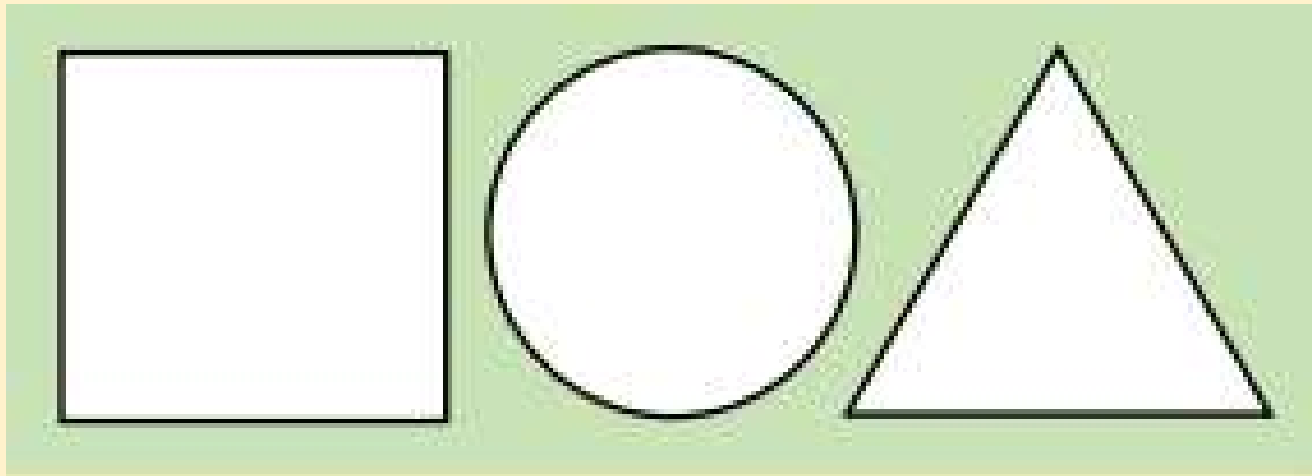

3. Write the number seventeen in the box:

A white square box with a black border, intended for writing the number seventeen.

4. There are 4 rabbits and 8 parrots for sale. How many animals is that altogether?

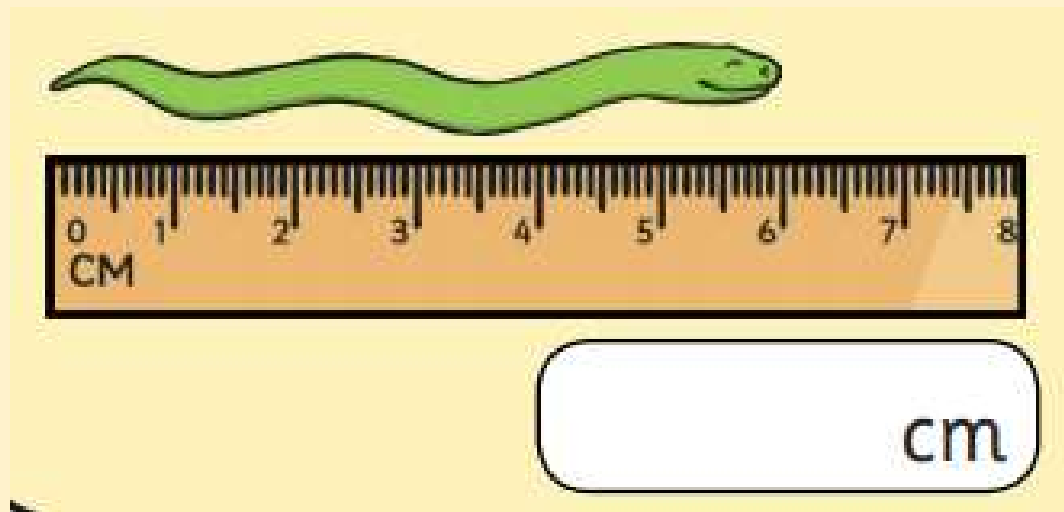

5. There are three shapes. Put a cross in the middle of the triangle.

6. Which number bond do you add to 6 to make 10?

$$6 + \boxed{} = 10$$

7. Have a look below. How long is the snake?

8. There were 5 hamsters in the shop. 3 of them were sold. How many hamsters were left?

