Dear Children,

I just wanted to say how proud I am of you all.

Things are very different at the moment and your teachers will certainly look different! I am pleased to see and hear that you are working on what your teachers are setting on the website and know that those on Google classroom are interacting well.

I hope you are managing some exercise and enjoying the rare extra family time. I too have discovered Joe Wicks and am glad of the sunshine.

With Easter coming make sure, you look after your family and help as much as you can. Your teachers will be setting work again from after the holiday on Monday 20th April, to help keep a normal routine for you. When things are different, routine can be comforting and I ask that you work with your parents to keep your brains active and creative.

We are missing you and thinking of you. I look forward to seeing you all back at school with healthy hearts and minds.

Yours

John Littlewood

Loving, Hopeful, Thankful
