

Where are Our Seasides?

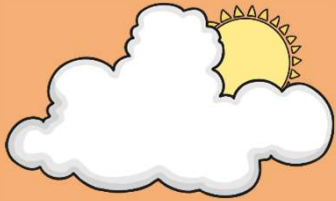

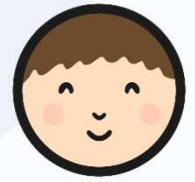

Aim

- I can use key words to describe different places and environments.
- I can use a map to find seaside locations.

Success Criteria

- I can use key words to describe different places I have visited.
- I can talk about the different types of environments that people can visit and describe what they are like (town, village, city, countryside, seaside).
- I can use key words to describe what seaside locations are like.
- I can locate (find) our nearest seaside resort on a map.
- I can find out three facts about our nearest seaside resort.

Key Words

weather

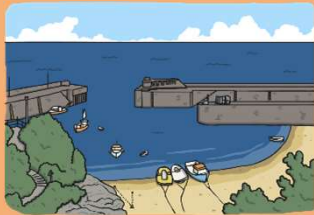

beach

sand shore

harbour

cliff

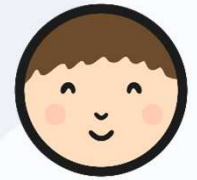

coast

port

What do I Know Already?

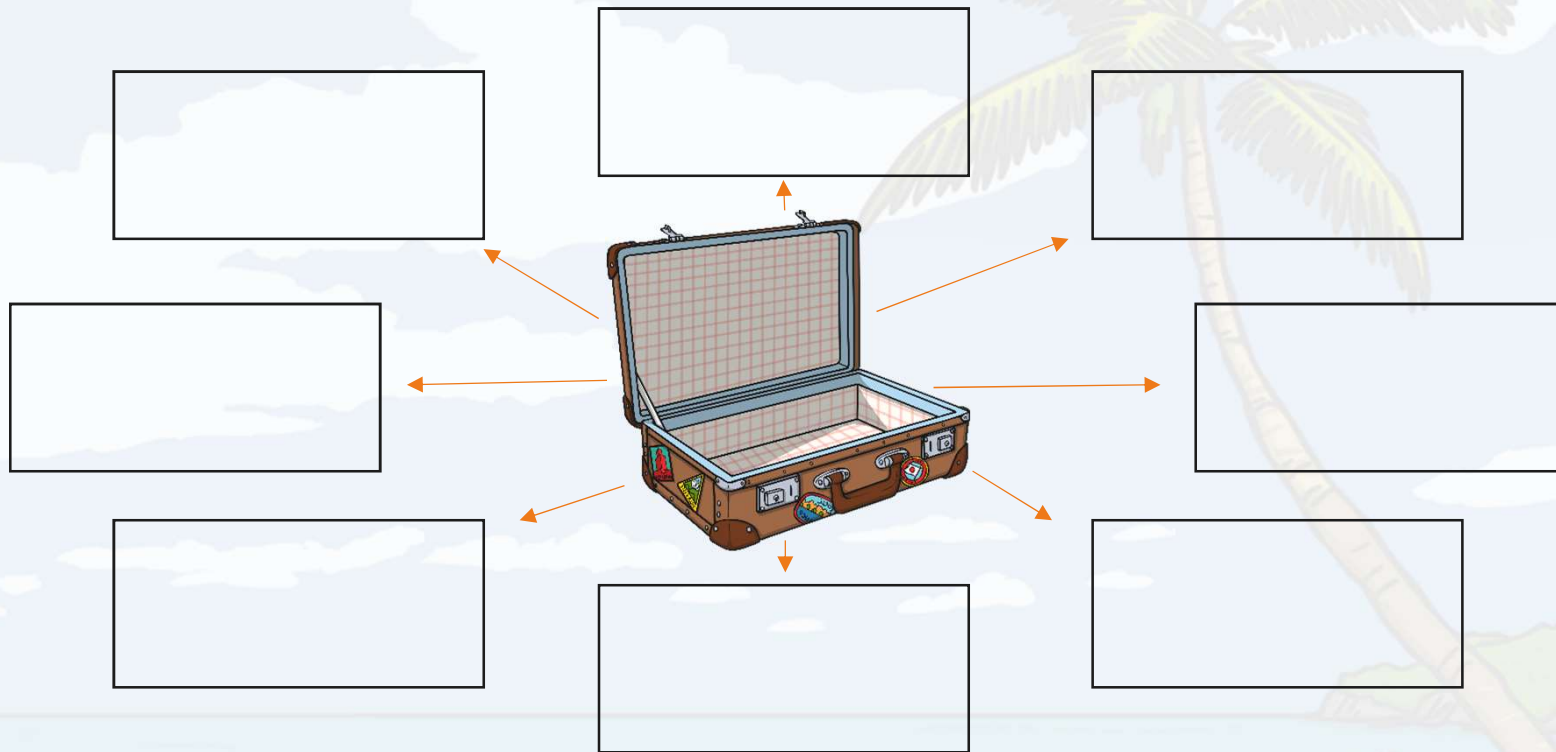

Quick Quiz

1. Write 5 words that describe the seaside.
2. Why do people visit the seaside?
3. Can you name any seaside places in the UK (resorts)?
- 4 What is an Island?
5. How might the seaside be different from where we live? Can you write / say 2 differences?

Where Have We Visited?

What different places have you visited?

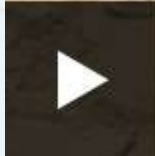

Are these places nearby or far away?

Sun, Sand and Seasides

What do we know about the seaside and what is it like?

What things can you do at a seaside resort and why do people visit them?

Click to watch the video

Sun, Sand and Seasides

What are the main features of the seaside?

The Seaside

- The...

Where Is Our Nearest Seaside?

Work together to locate (find) our local area and then our nearest seaside resort.

Where do we live?

Where is the nearest seaside resort to us?

Has anybody visited this resort?

Researching Resorts

You are going to find out about a seaside resort by carrying out research.
What things could you research?

You could use books, maps, leaflets, posters and the Internet to help you collect information about your seaside resort. You could present your research in many different ways.

Researching Resorts

See attached Research sheet. You can research any seaside you would like to. It might be one you have visited before or one you would like to visit.

Spot the Difference

Ready, Steady, Catch!

How is the seaside different to our local area?

In what ways might it be the same?

Spot the Difference

Spot the Difference

Spot the Difference

Spot the Difference

