

Adjectives...

Adjectives are describing words.

They tell us more about a noun – a thing or object, like a whale or another animal or a part of it, like a fin.

The huge whale

The spotty whale

You can use more than one adjective in the same sentence.
If you do that you usually put a comma between them.

The huge, spotty whale

Often, adjectives come before the noun they are describing.

The huge, spotty whale

But they can also come later in the sentence.

Whales are quite often huge and spotty.

My Chosen Whale

- Pick any one of the whales in the story and describe it.
- Think of some really good adjectives that you could use to describe your whale.
- You could describe the whole whale or just part of it – its eye, its flipper, its skin, etc.

A writing template for 'My Chosen Whale'. It features a decorative border made of colorful puzzle pieces (blue, yellow, red, and grey) surrounding a large rectangular area. This area is divided into eight horizontal sections by thin grey lines, providing space for writing a description of a whale.
