

English task - Friday 22nd May

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HoJIX32Q238>.

Today, I would like you to choose one of the settings below and write a descriptive paragraph.

Things to think about:

What can you see?

What do you think you would be able to hear?

What might things feel like (to touch, emotions)?

Think about how Winnie might have been feeling at these different points in the story.

Don't forget your capital letters, full stops, finger spaces and joined letters. Don't rush, take your time with your handwriting.

Now she really was worried.
It was nearly time for the Magic Show.
The wonderful new spell would be a disaster.
Wilbur was worried too.

Nothing.

At last, a bunch of paper flowers popped out of the end of the trick wand.

One of the witches started to laugh.
Soon everyone was laughing.
They laughed, they screamed,
they shrieked and fell off their chairs.

'What a clever joke, Winnie,' they cried.
'Where did you get that wand?'
Winnie smiled. But she didn't say anything.

And neither did Wilbur.
