We have now reached the end of the week and hopefully you have completed your Caterpillar Shoes story. Today there are a some options for you to choose from.

Option 1:

If you have not yet finished your story, continue today and try to reach the end of the story when the caterpillar becomes a butterfly.

Option 2:

If you have completely finished the story, design and create a front cover. Think about some of your favourite book covers and try to create something detailed, colourful and to match the story (no Santa clause ☺).

Option 3

For those who want to challenge themselves even more this week. Try and create the next part of this story. The film ends when the butterfly flew away but what do you think could happen after that? Write your own ending, using your knowledge of the caterpillar and everything he has done so far.

Remember all of the features we have been using this week and try to include them in your last paragraph.
