

Lesson 3 – Exploring the writing

Reread the book together, only reading the information on one child. Ask the child to retell the information that they know.

Is there any additional information that they would like to ask the child? The child can draw around their hand and write five questions.

Use how, what, where, when and why to help generate questions.

Remind the child to use a question mark.

