

aW saying /or/ aU saying /or/

Making the Most of It

SAUN

Today, we are learning to read and write words that contain au and aw saying /or/.

Let's practise reading all of this weeks focus words.

August launch
laundry astronaut
saw paw
draw yawn

The museum was closing. Kit, Sam, Mum and Dad headed towards the exit. “What an experience!” said Dad. “You will definitely have something to tell your friends on Monday! Better go and get Ben now!”

Kit and Sam skipped along the path. Mum and Dad walked behind, carrying the souvenirs. Kit bought a solar system pencil case and Sam bought stars that glow in the dark for her bedroom.

“I’m looking forward to getting back to the hotel,” Mum said. “I might even try the sauna before we leave!”
“I wonder what Ben has been up to today?” pondered Dad.

It's a Dog's Life

The family are collecting Ben from the dog play centre by the hotel. The lady explains that Ben has had a little accident. Can you read the accident form?

Ben has had a great day and made lots of new _____ .

We did think he had hurt his _____ .

It did look _____ but with a little clean, he was fine.

We could tell he was OK when he started digging up the _____ !

_____, we must add that he was very well behaved!

paw

lawn

awful

also friends

SAUNA

Ben has had a great day and made lots of new friends.

We did think he had hurt his paw.

It did look awful but with a little clean, he was fine.

We could tell he was OK when he started digging up the lawn!

Also, we must add that he was very well behaved!

paw

lawn

awful

also

friends

SAUN

“Oh, what’s he like!” muttered Dad. “Ben is always getting into mischief! Thanks for looking after him. It looks like he has had a great day!”

“Come on, Ben,” called Mum. “It is time to go home!”

While Dad packed the bags and loaded the car, Mum, Kit and Sam went to use the hotel facilities. “We might as well make the most of it!” smiled Mum. They had a swim in the pool. It was only little but they had it all to themselves.

When Kit and Sam had finished swimming, they met Dad in the changing rooms and got dressed. They waited outside until Mum appeared a while later. “Where have you been Mum?” asked Sam. “Oh, I just did a few extra lengths in the pool,” said Mum suspiciously.

Once Kit and Sam were home, they decided to put together a photo album of their weekend. “Grandma Dadi and Grandpa Dada would love to see your photos!” said Dad, smiling. “Grandma Dadi has already said she might take Danesh there in August.”

This weekend we went to a hotel. We thought the beds were so comfy and fluffy! We were there because we were visiting a museum.

We left Ben to play at the dog play zone and saw many other dogs there! When we got to the museum, we looked at the amazing rockets.

The museum was full of different models of stars, planets and launching rockets. Aubree let us eat some astronaut food. It felt funny in our mouths!

Then we all floated about in the zero gravity room. We could do tricks and go upside down! Mum felt very unwell in the chamber. Dad also did not feel well!

After that, we found out that Ben had been having fun and making friends. Ben hurt his paw but it did not stop him digging up the lawn!

Mum said we needed to make the most of the hotel, so we went for a swim and a splash. Mum went in the sauna when we were not looking!

“Well, what a wonderful weekend!” remarked Dad.

“Yes I enjoyed everything except the zero gravity room!” replied Mum.

“Did you enjoy the sauna though?” asked Dad.

“Yes, it was so love....wait, how did you know?” asked Mum.

“You have been found out!” said Sam and everybody laughed!

