

Reading Words with Contractions

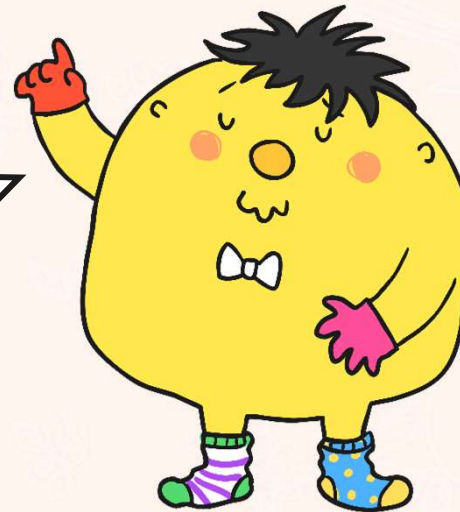

twinkl

twinkl
Quality Standard
Approved

Sometimes, when we read, write and speak, we can squeeze two words together to make a new word.

I'll show you what this means.

Look! Mr Whoops has squeezed two words together to make a new word.

I

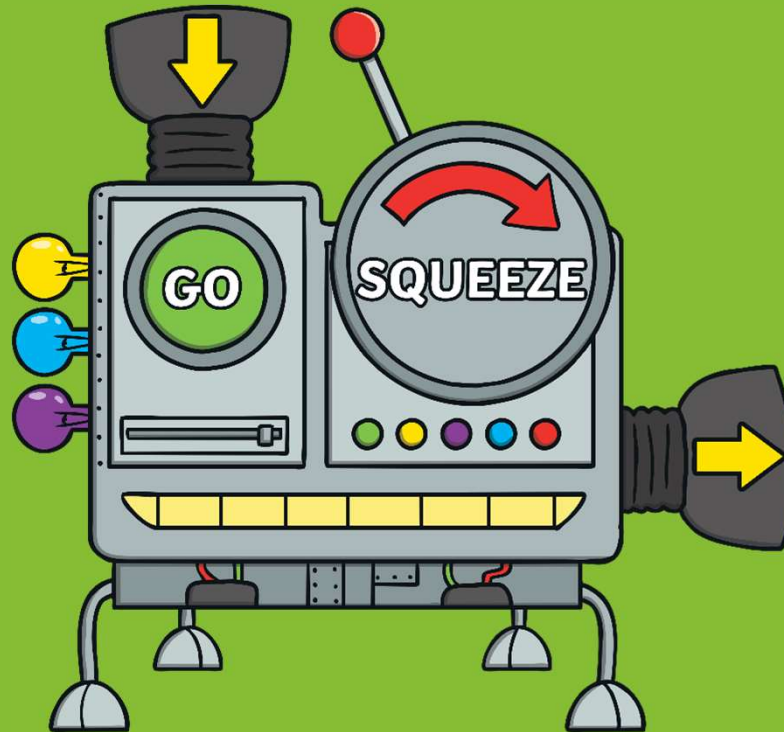

+

will

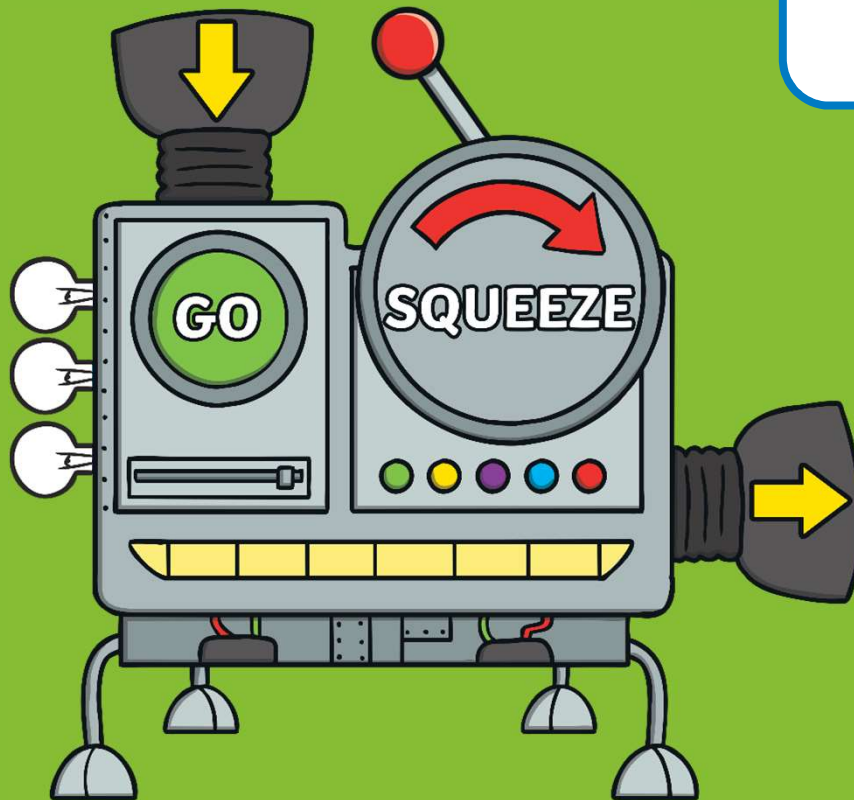

=

I'll

This is the Squeeze O-Matic machine. It squeezes words together. Read the two words as they go into the machine. Click the 'GO' button and read the word that comes out. Write each one on a whiteboard.

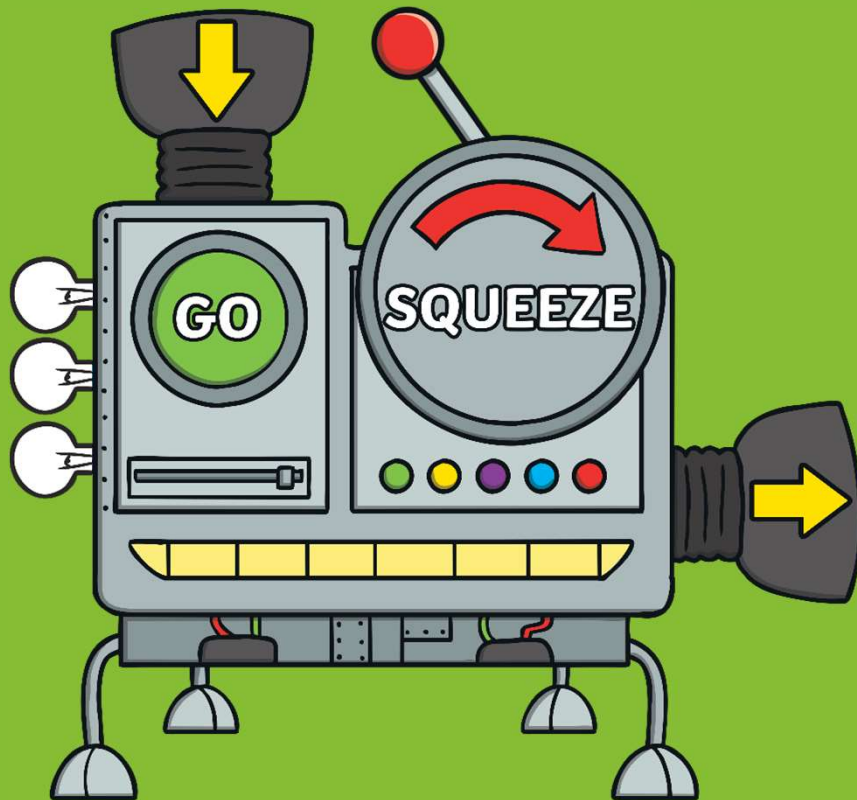

are not

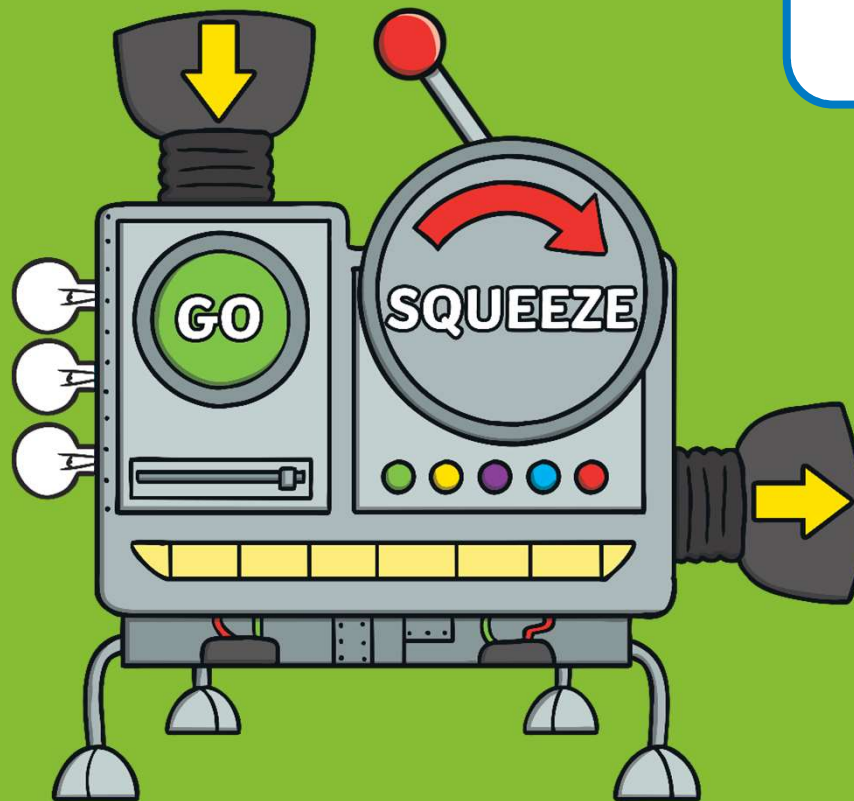

Press 'GO' to see the Squeeze O-Matic machine squeeze the words together!

are not

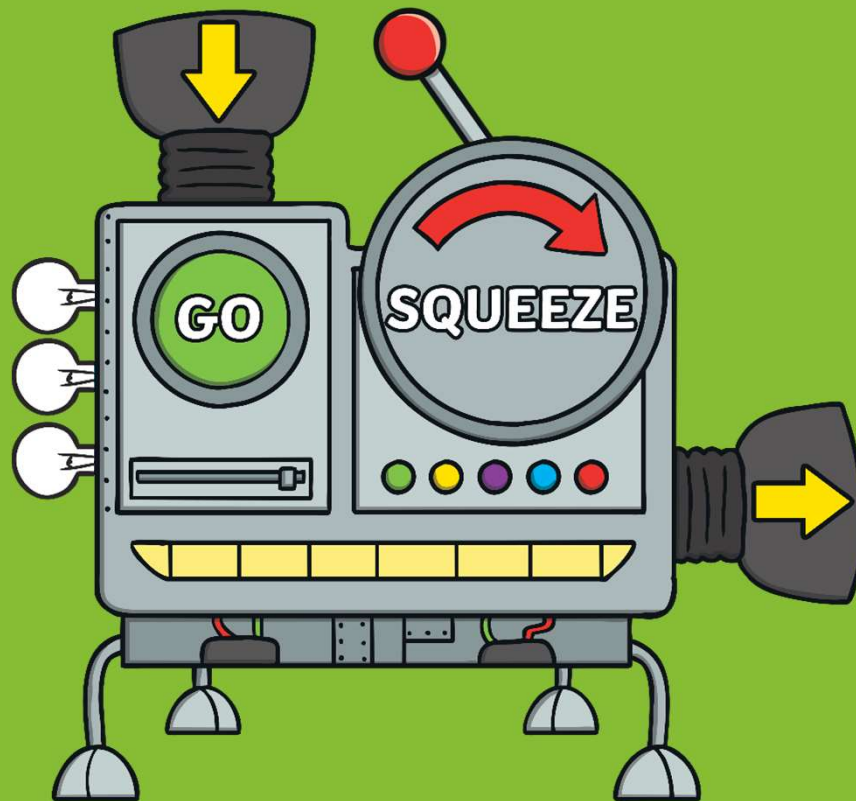

aren't

do not

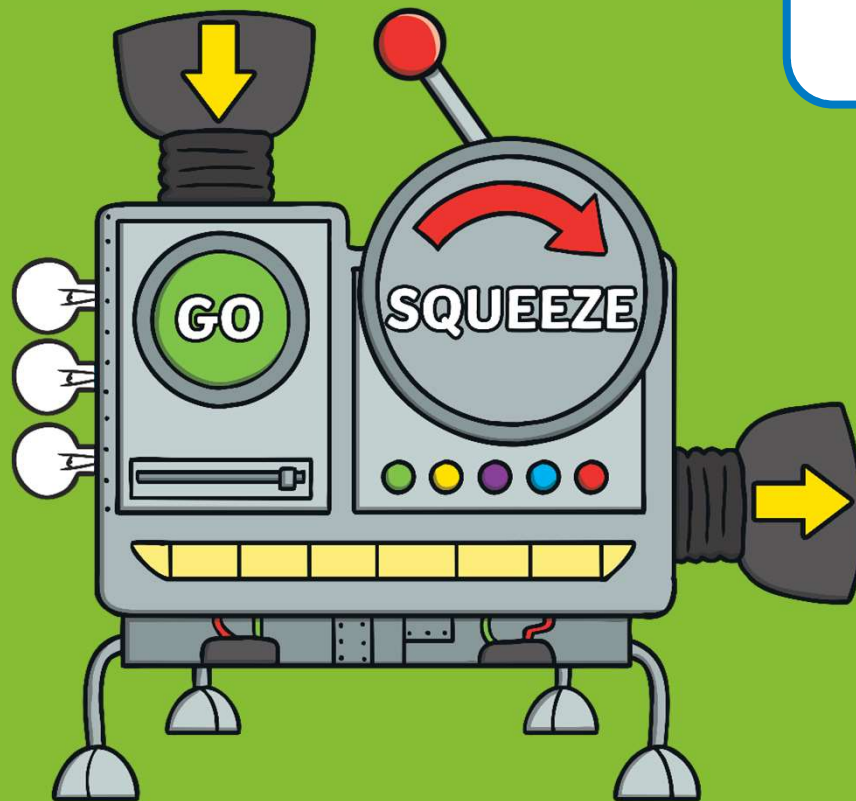

Press 'GO' to see the Squeeze O-Matic machine squeeze the words together!

do not

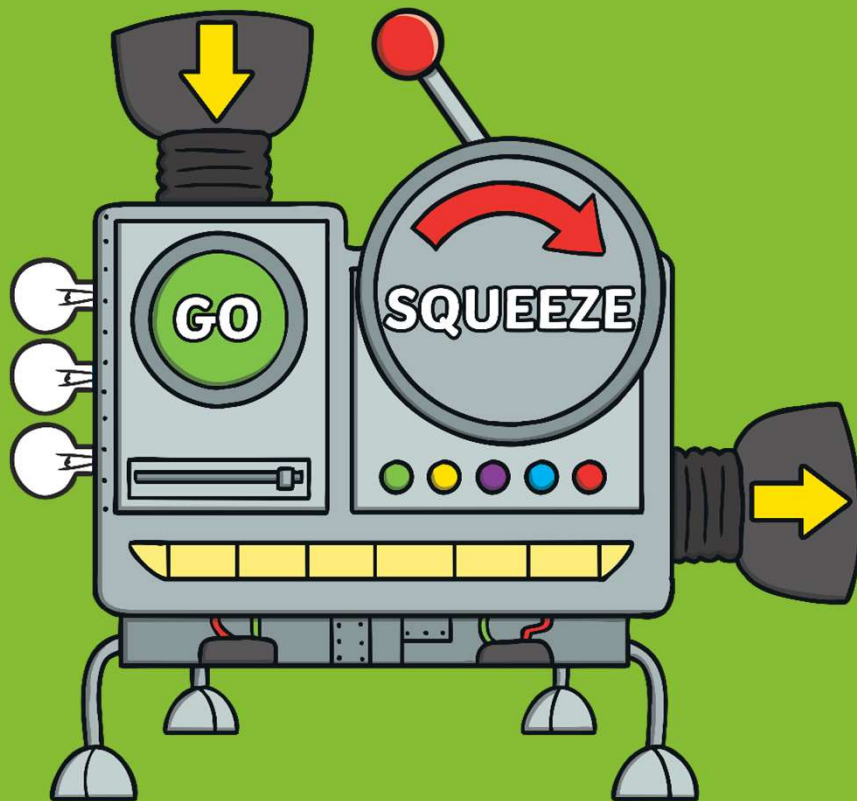

don't

can not

Press 'GO' to see the Squeeze O-Matic machine squeeze the words together!

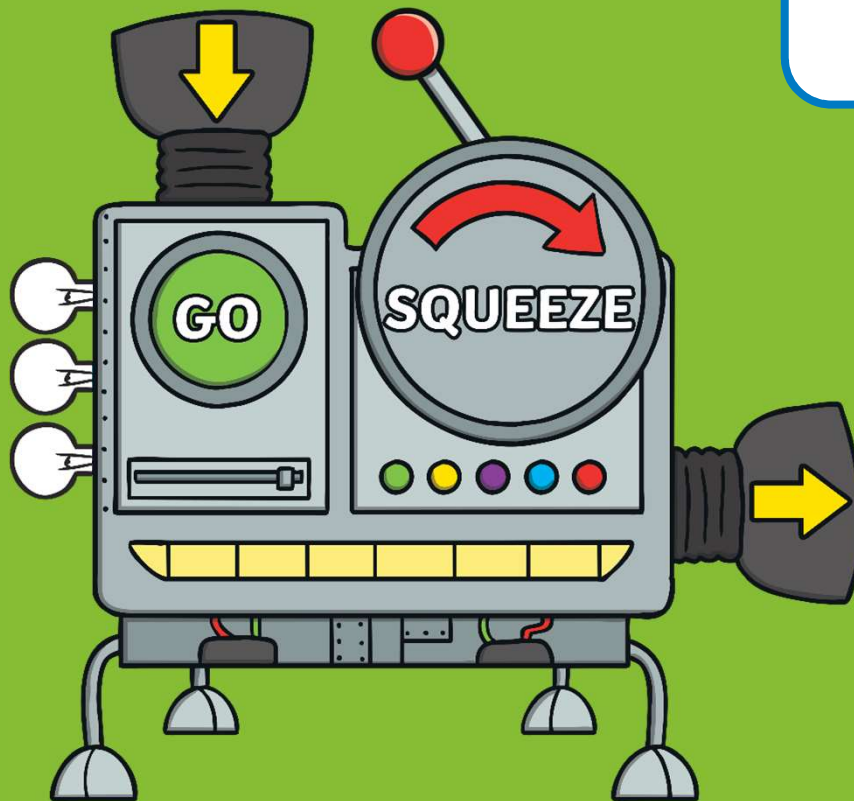

can not

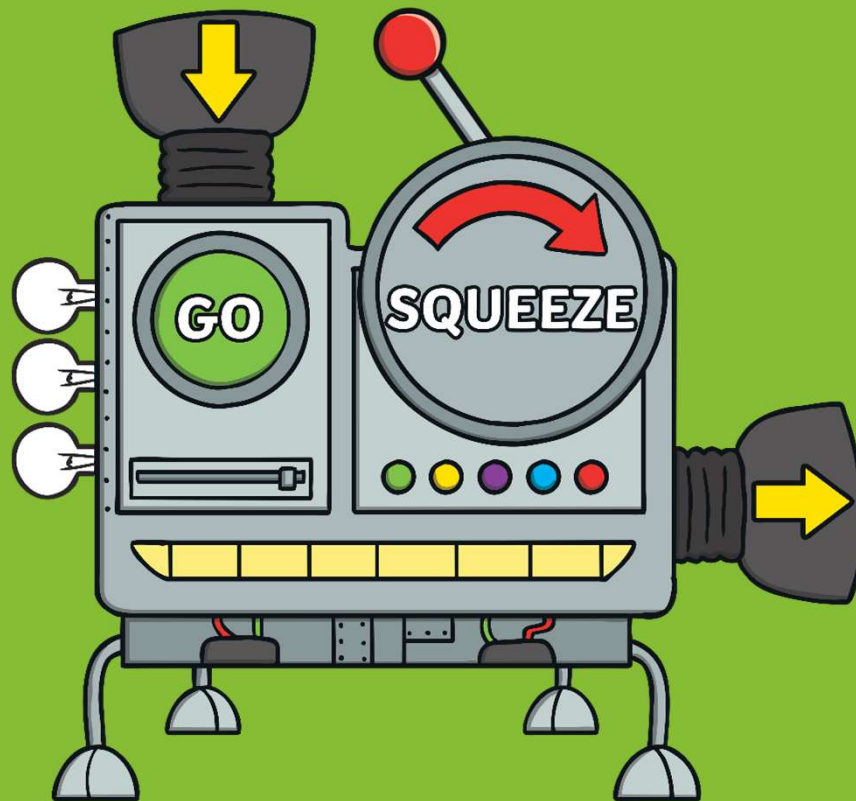

can't

have not

Press 'GO' to see the Squeeze O-Matic machine squeeze the words together!

have not haven't should not

Press 'GO' to see the Squeeze O-Matic machine squeeze the words together!

should not shouldn't

did not

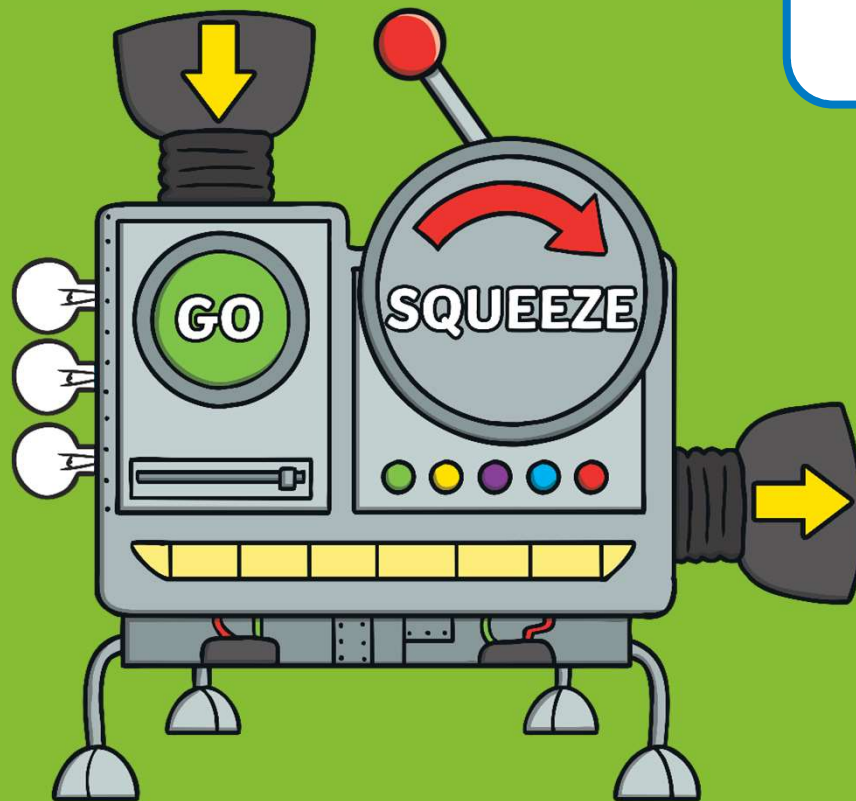

Press 'GO' to see the Squeeze O-Matic machine squeeze the words together!

did not

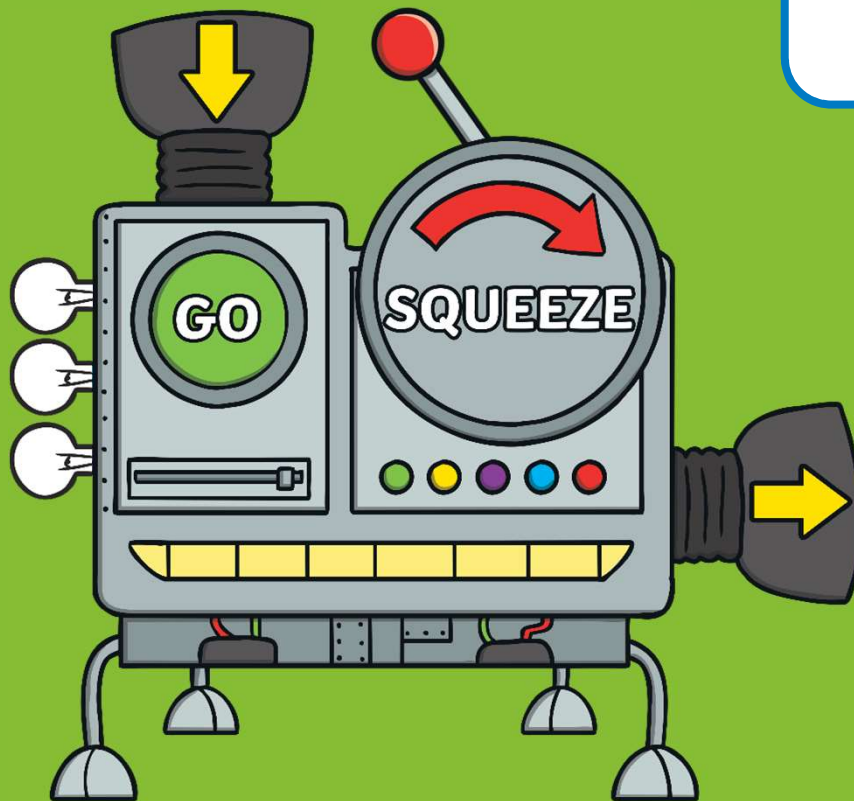

didn't

what is

Press 'GO' to see the Squeeze O-Matic machine squeeze the words together!

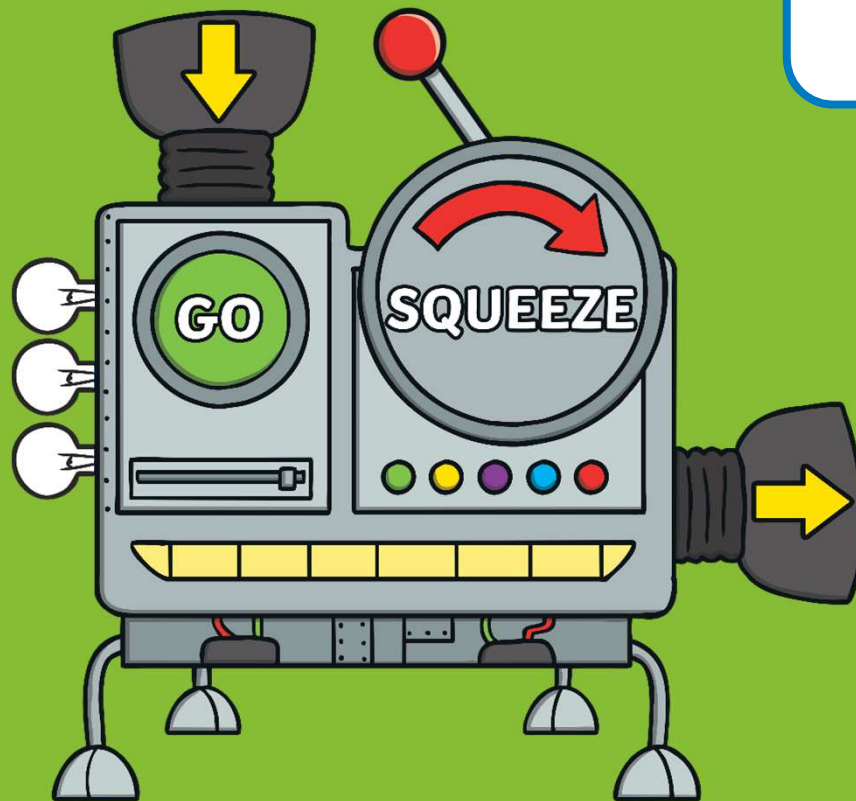

what is

Press 'GO' to see the Squeeze O-Matic machine squeeze the words together!

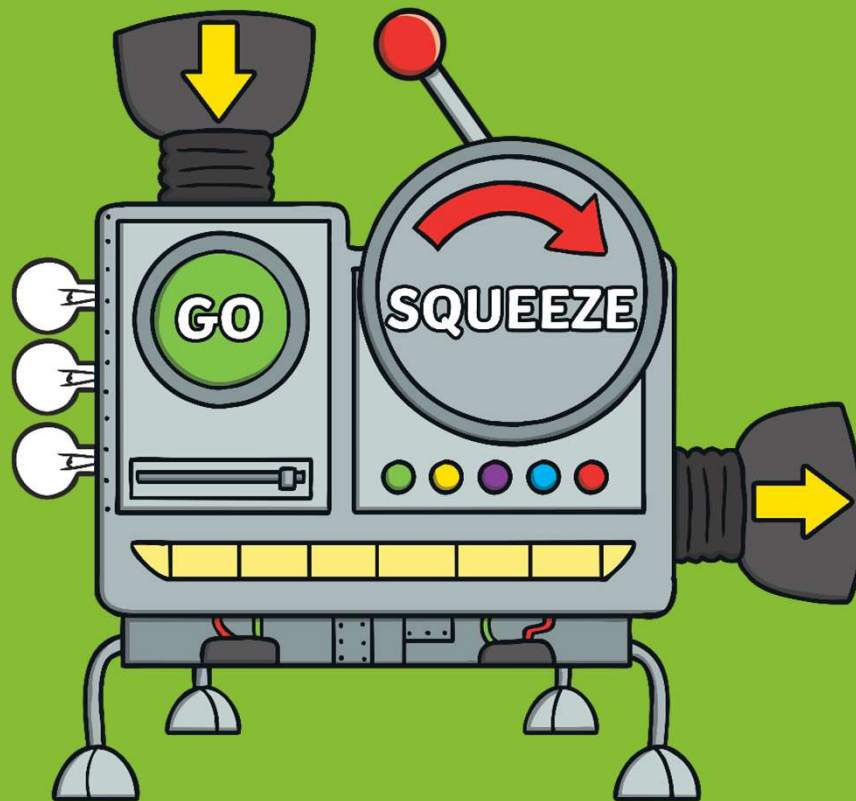

what's

I have

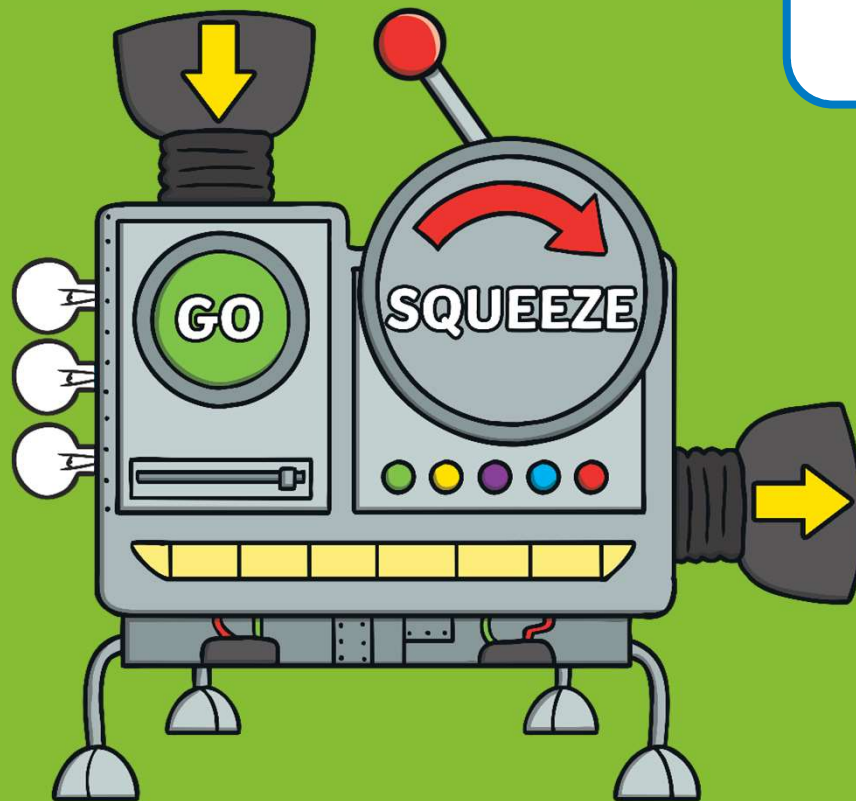

Now press 'GO' to see the Squeeze O-Matic machine squeeze the words together!

I have

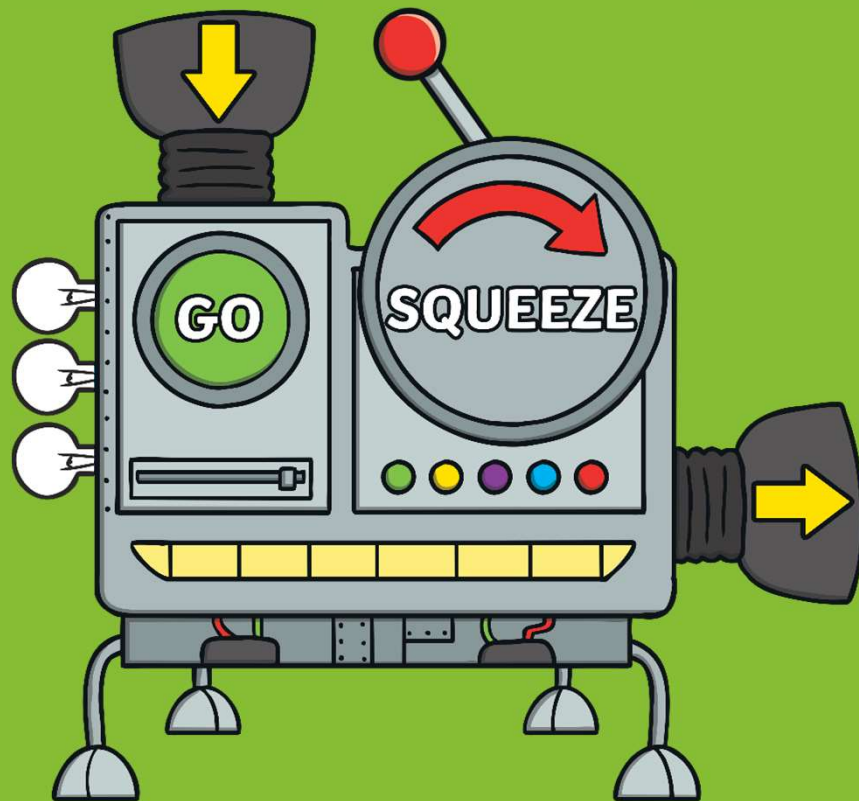

I've

it is

Press 'GO' to see the Squeeze O-Matic machine squeeze the words together!

it is

It's

Practise today's spellings in your handwriting books. Take care with your lead ins and remember to join your letters carefully.

twinkl